PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

64-66 FIFTH AVE. NEW YORK May 15/1918

Dear Miss Tarbell,

I take pleasure in enclosing you herewith a contract for the publication of your book on the lines suggested in our conversation the other day.

I hope that you will think the agreement satisfactory, especially in these days of adverse conditions in the book publishing business.

If you will kindly sign the agreement and return it to us I will then send you a copy of it signed by ourselves for your files.

Let me hope that you will be able to make good progress on the book. I still have a feeling that if it could be published in the autumn it would be better to bring it out then.

Yours very truly,

George F. Baile

Miss Ida M. Tarbell.
