United States Steel Corporation

71 BROADWAY EMPIRE BUILDING

OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN

New York, Aug. 1, 1924.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York, N.Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Your Secretary mentioned in a letter dated July 19th that you would like to have a talk with Mr. Percival Roberts, Jr. some time in August. I think, however, that he will not return from Canada until late in the month of September. If there are others on your list with whom we could help in making arrangements, I shall of course be glad to follow up your suggestions. Perhaps you will find it convenient to telephone about this matter so that we may consider and act promptly upon the several names that you may suggest.

With kind regards, and hoping that you are benefiting by a rest during a part of the summer, I am,

Sincerely yours,

J R Silcox

Secretary to Judge Gary.
