Dear Miss Rogers:

I have been so driven that I have not kept my promise to fill out the blanks for my candidates for the A. W. A. prize. And now I am off for a month or more in the middle west.

Miss Gather is eligible, having long kept an apartment in New York City and spending the greater part of her time here.

Miss Milay is out of the district and I accept your judgment about Edith Wharton. I remember Miss Morgan was inclined to think she should be called a New Yorker, in spite of her long residence abroad.

I am enclosing the recommendations filled out defectively as well as I can do in the time at my disposal.

Sincerely yours

Miss Daisy Rogers
