My dear Miss Tarbell :- Twice I have read your book, "In The Footsteps of The Lincoln", with a great deal of pleasure.

Opposite page 38 you have a picture of Deborah Lincoln's tombstone. Under the picture it says that it is in "Couell's Hill Cemetery, Monmouth Co., N. J."

I have made several pilgrimages to that country, and have inquired of many persons to direct me to that cemetery. But have been unable to locate it.

If you will give me an explicit and detailed direction for finding the cemetery, you will confer a great favor upon one who has found great pleasure in reading your latest book on the Lincoln.

yours respectfully.
