

NEW JERSEY.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Mrs Finley says
I may ask you for dinner Saturday evening, and I hasten to send you a line in New York to beg you to be sure to come. I thought we could have a cosy
time all of us together.
Mr Cleveland is on his way to St Louis & will not return before

Sunday. If you
"are surely coming
to Princeton please don't take the trouble to reply, because I can't show my way for you out of coming to me if you come to Princeton! You see
there won't be any dinner at the "Inlgs".

Most Sincerely

Frances F. Cleveland
