Lindsley on Gary - 7/10'25; Remark clear-headed & just - of all the men his dark trial - & have known her is the most friendly and tolerant toward others who flaunt opinions which conflict with his own. His opinions are definite - well based & he is tenacious of them, but trial never prevents him from listening to those who differ - reading them kindly & courteously.
& I have never known an exception.
He is often misunderstood in Finance Com - which L. says is "about the whole thing" particularly on matters of policy where many school students fail to see both sides.
L says he has reassembled with elder Mr & Mrs. J.D.R. Sr & finds him unchanged if possible - accustomed to command - to deference - to courtesy civilized & cordial to all & different
