Morningside College
SIOUX CITY, IOWA

February 14, 1927.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 E Nineteenth Street,
New York City, New York.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Your letter with enclosure meant more to us than we can express. We love our college. We wanted to help in these trying times. We have worked so strenuously and I will confess that we were a bit discouraged after we received your first letter.

Your sympathetic interest, however, gives us new heart and courage. It was certainly very kind of you to take the time from your strenuous activities to write to us and we deeply appreciate your frank letter as well as your generous gift.

Most sincerely yours,

Zoe Kellogg
