Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Please tell your neice that she will receive by mail a package of envelopes such as she wants.

I am sending Miss Keller your letter and a request that she telephone or write me where I may see her.

I am very much excited over a letter I have just received from a preacher up in Westchester County, a relative of Horace Greeley whom I got track of. He says that he is sending me under separate cover three portraits of Mr. Greeley, one being the favorite portrait of Mrs. Greeley. Just so soon as I see them I will let you know how they look. I have track of another Greeley relative, a woman who writes for the Evening World. I have written her.

I have found a nephew of David A. Wells and have written him, but have not yet heard from him.

I have written a son of Justin A. Morrill, but have not yet heard from him.

You know I have Garfield's promise of something.

Rogers writes me from Philadelphia that he has located a good portrait of "Pig Iron" Kelley which he will send me immediately. That keeps us out of the clutches of sister Florence if she tries to get gay. And the photograph (I have just seen it) is a daisy. The old boy looks like a piece of Old man Kasson has promised to send his on as soon as he gets back to Washington.
