Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

I am under further obligation to you for your gracious reply to my letter of February 27th. I am happy that the print was of some interest to you.

I wish to add a slight correction of an error which you yourself doubtless perceived in my letter of the 27th. The original of my print was found on the dead body of a soldier on the battlefield of the Battle of the Wilderness, not on the field of the Battle of Antietam as stated in my letter of the 27th. It was my error and not that of my client.

This letter, of course, requires no answer.

With the best of wishes.

Very sincerely yours,
