is of course of deep absorbing interest, as well it is! Dear Grace! But I must say I'm a little appalled at his charging all the unimportance to the — to all of us — of politics. Isn't that the most dangerous delusion of a democracy. Of course the tariff & coining both issues are important to the whole family than the tariff or the choice for President. But there are remote, obscure yet terribly powerful agencies of good democracy depends, doesn't it? At the last analysis, an just policing whether you can make Tom, Dick and Harry see it and see it well enough to act with efficient sanity? Certainly they'll never do act for any less intimate reasons. And then the American Reps are telling us how foolish and criminal it all is, and how it doesn't really concern us! Of course I know how and we
