December 27, 1920

Mr. Louis J. Alber,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Alber:

I have your letter of December 18.

This looks all right to me, that is, that I permit your New York office to place me for these special engagements at $100. to $150, and I pay 30% for the booking; it being understood, too, that no engagement be made without consulting me.

I have written Mr. Burke about the circular. When the present posters are used up, I think it would be a good idea to change the picture. That hat is getting a little out of date.

Very sincerely yours,
