Allegheny College
1999 - 2000

Allegheny College

Large and special events filled the 1999-2000 school year. From the first days of the "Austin Powers" themed Orientation, to the final days of Commencement, students made everything bigger and better. These are the people, places, and events that made our year special. With our memories, this time will live forever.

Got Spirit?

Rapunzel's castle made by Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Kappa Kappa Gamma won the winning float in the parade.

Kappa Kappa Gamma women show their pride and school spirit as they march in the homecoming parade.

Senior Tina Vignale yells along with the crowd in support of the Gator Football team.

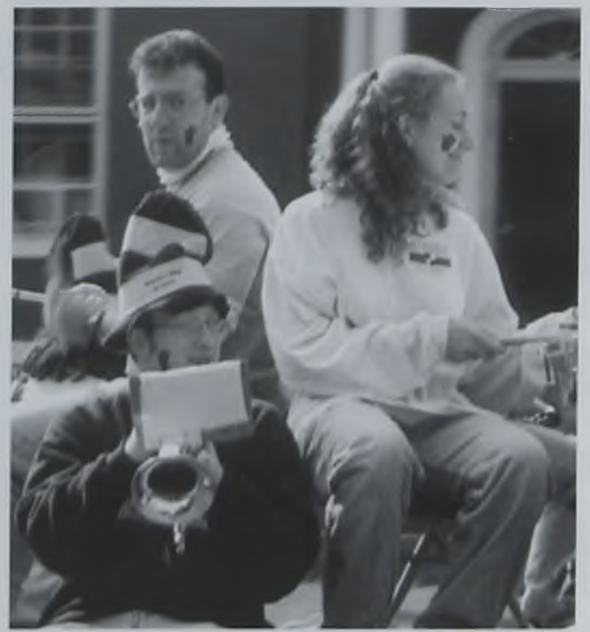

Homecoming

The Allegheny Homecoming Tradition lives on with the Homecoming floats, parade, and football game. Valiant efforts were made by the Gators as they played Wooster in a gridlock struggle.

The Pep Band gets ready to jam as the parade gets under way.

The parade welcomed a variety of entries from children on bikes to "Shoeless for Justice." The protesting feet are shown above.

Spirit!!!
Residence Life helped sponsor homecoming events, here in the parade, students from Brooks' Complex dress as characters from "Alice In Wonderland" to support the theme "Once Upon A Time(r)"

The student section proves to be fun and uplifting at the homecoming football game, producing a record setting crowd!!!

Senior Mark Luellen and Junior Scott Yakubek take front and center to sing Mr. Big's "To Be With You" at Greek Sing.

Brothers

Alpha Delta Pi Sister Christine Coleman sits on stage while singing a traditional song at Greek Sing.

"Man I Feel Like a Theta!!!" Sisters of Kappa Alpha Theta sing along to Shania Twain during Greek Sing.

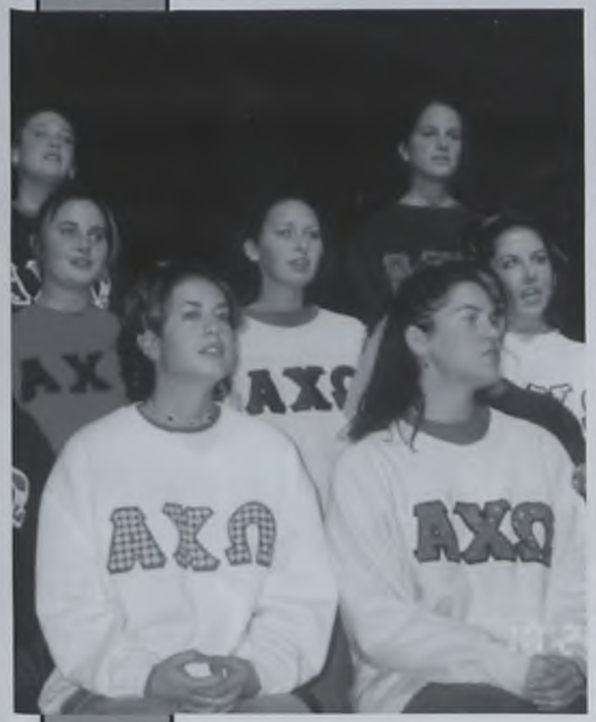

Sisters

The Brothers of Phi Kappa Psi march along Brook's Walk as they prepare to run out new members.

Members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon wait outside of Brooks for Runout to begin

Alpha Chi Omega sings a traditional sorority song at Greek Sing.

Greeks welcomed back the Alpha Chapter of Delta Tau Delta in the Spring.

The Sisters of Kappa Kappa Gamma received first prize for their rendition of the Grease Medley

Junior Vanessa Worley is hard at work fixing a window for Make A Difference Day

With a Little Help

For Our Friends

Sophomore Mike Colbert stands tall as he finishes a project for Make A Difference Day

Freshmen get their first taste of community service at Allegheny working with the kids of Gill Village for Orientation's Allegheny Adventures.

The 1999-2000 school year was a huge year for community service at Allegheny College. Numerous clubs and organization contributed to over 27,000 hours of community service in the Meadville area. Individually the year saw over 800 Allegheny students volunteering their time and energy, 535 of them on Make A Difference Day.

Seniors Liz Eichenlaub and Tara Hill pose with Allegheny freshmen after successfully completing a MADD project.

In April members of the Allegheny Service Network show off lists of new ideas for community service for the 2000 - 2001 school year.

Collegiate Leadership Conference

CLC

Leadership at Allegheny has a long history but has made large steps in the past ten years. In this time the Collegiate Leadership Conference, The Emerging Leaders Retreat, and The Leadership Banquet have all been introduced to our campus. These programs have allowed Allegheny to both create leaders and recognize leaders for their accomplishments

Students and Administrators gather for a group shot after performing in the closing night talent show at CLC.

Allegheny Leadership

Junior Tim Shevlin hovers over unsuspecting volunteers.

Associate Dean of Experiential Learning Joe DiChristina joins a discussion of leadership among Allegheny students

Emerging Leaders

Seniors Amy Babish, Tara Hill, and Michael Palmer enjoy dinner at the annual Leadership Banquet.

Freshmen show off goals they hope to have completed by their senior year at Allegheny's first Emerging Leaders Retreat.

Reflections on Leadership

Leadership is the ability to bring together people with diverse interests and backgrounds to work toward a common goal.
~Kathleen McMichael (02)

I feel that when you come in contact with a great number of people, you always have the opportunity to make a difference.
~Mark Luellen (00)

Leadership is leading by example.
~Pamela Teets (01)

I sincerely hope that my leadership activities at Allegheny are remembered not for what I did, but how I did it.
~Mendy Osbourn (00)

I have had the opportunity to learn as much, if not more, from the students with whom I worked.
~Justin Gerboc (00)

Leadership is an opportunity to help others realize their strengths and use them in a positive way.
~Josh Taylor (03)

Many groups set up booths at Springfest selling food and other goods. Below ABC cooks their "World Famous Ribs."

One of the many activities sponsored by GAP at Springfest is the joust.

A shot of Springfest from the roof of the Campus Center.

Springfest is an annual Allegheny celebration sponsored by GAP. This year's theme was Mardi Gras and saw students outfitted in numerous bead necklaces and fun masks. Among the many activities at this year's party was a climbing wall, and for entertainment, Ordinary People rocked out in front of McKinley's.

Students eagerly wait in line to receive Springfest t-shirts.

Students scale a climbing wall set up between the Post Office and the Campus Center.

Regional band Ordinary People perform in front of McKinley's.

Graduation

On Sunday, the 14th of May 2000, 348 students graduated from Allegheny College. A beautiful day, commencement proceeded perfectly as students received their degrees in the 184th year of Allegheny College, along with three recipients whom received Doctor of Humane Letters.

Special Thanks to Jeff Miller '02 for his work on The Kaldron.
