

January 26, 1927.

Miss. Georgia Osborne,
Illinois Historical Association,
Springfield, Ill.

My dear Miss Osborne:

I have no doubt that you have been frequently asked to verify the following quotation, attributed to Lincoln:

"

I am constantly being asked if it is authentic and my answer invariably has been that I have never been able to find it in any published letter or speech. I have on my desk a copy of an address written to you years ago by R.M.
Springer, at one time living in the Soldier's Home at National Home, Wis. in which he says that Lincoln had written the paragraph, as quoted, above, to Col. P. Wilkins of Illinois.

If you can help me out on this I shall be very much obliged.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,

120 EAST NINETEENTH STREET

January 28, 1927.

Miss. Georgia Osborne,
Illinois Historical Association,
Springfield, Ill.

My dear Miss Osborne:

I have no doubt that you have been frequently asked to verify the following quotation, attributed to Lincoln:

"

I am constantly being asked if it is authentic and my answer invariably has been that I have never been able to find it in any published letter or speech. I have on my desk a copy of an address written to you years ago by R.M.
Springer, at one time living in the Soldier's Home at National Home, Wis. in which he says that Lincoln had written the paragraph, as quoted, above, to Col. P. Wilkins of Illinois.

If you can help me out on this I shall be very much obliged.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,