New York City

My dear Miss Tarbell

I have your delightful letter of October 9th.
I certainly have not the remotest objection to your using your own material either now or in February. My book will certainly not be in shape for print before February, so that you can let me have the copies of your unpublished letters or documents without any worry that I will anticipate your article in February.

I am very glad you spoke of the photostatic copies at this time, as I will be able to give you quite a number of them in order to make your little collection a large collection.

Would it be possible for you to have dinner with my family some evening at my home, so that you may have an opportunity to examine my library, both Lincoln and otherwise?
I know that both Mrs. Hertz and the family would be very glad to see you.

Cordially yours

Emanuel Hertz
