Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
 120 East Nineteenth St.,
 New York City, N. Y.

Oct.
 14
 1920.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I was more than pleased to read in your letter of October 11 that you will accept a place on the Executive Committee of the National Safety Council. We shall not expect you to attend all of the monthly meetings, but shall be satisfied if you can attend part of them when you are in New York City, or are passing through Chicago.

Now that you are an officer of the Council, I have the right to exercise the privileges of general manager and impose on your time for a conference now and then on subjects on which I shall value your counsel.

You stated you will be in Chicago on the 13th or 14th of November. I find on looking over my calendar that I am scheduled to speak in Cleveland on the 12th and, therefore, must start East on the 11th. I note you wish to use our library and bureau of information, and I want to assure you that every facility that our office affords will be placed at your disposal to assist you in every way possible. I want you to become acquainted with our bureau of information so that possibly in the future we may be of greater service to you than we have in the past. If you should change your plans and reach Chicago before November 13, please let me know.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

C. W. Price,
 General Manager.
