New York, January 22, 1918.

My dear Mr. Bridges:

I telegraphed you last night that I was willing to go to Chattanooga on the terms mentioned in your letter of January 17th. I will be quite as willing that you did not finish up the rest of the three dates, as I wrote the other day, unless indeed you feel that it is better business to do so. If so, all right.

Yours very sincerely,

Mr. S. R. Bridges,
Atlanta, Ga.

Dictated by Miss Tarbell.
