My dear Mr. Richards:

I wonder if you can give me any information about an organization calling itself the International Patent Conference, at least I think that's the title. It held its Fourth Annual gathering here in New York early in June of this year and was sponsored by a man named Harry Green. I've had curious letters from him. Can you tell me anything about him and about this organization?

I, of course, should keep anything you wrote me as confidential, if you so wish.

Trusting I am not imposing upon your good will, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. C.R.Richards,
