UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA
PHILADELPHIA

OFFICE OF THE PROVOST

April 13th, 1925.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

For the purpose of an educational pamphlet which will shortly be published by this University, I am asking a few leaders of opinion to answer briefly the following question:

"In the light of your career since graduating, what in your college education appears now to have been of greatest value to you?"

Let me explain that a response based upon your immediate reaction to the question will probably serve the interest of this pamphlet quite as well as a more deliberate reply.

Trusting that you may find it agreeable and convenient to give me the benefit of your opinion, I am

Very truly yours,

J. H. Penniman

President.
