

Washington Feb. 8

Dear Brother

Having a few moments to spare I thought I would improve the time by Writing a few lines to you I am well at Present and all the rest of the Boys and hope these few lines will find you the same there is warm Weather here at present But Tuesday night was the coldest night we have had here the Statute of Franklin is across the Road front of the White House a Jacksons across the Street he is on a horse

The enlistment of negro is going on here, there there is 150 enlisted in this City Joseph Hooker will put the Pebbles through with when you get this I would like to know wheather you got the money
I sent that is all at present So good by

W A Carter
