March 14. 89.

Dear Miss Tarbell.

You have been most generous to us - the word ab. large - ^{let us} to share with you the days - months & years of your full and wonderful life - As Mr.

Put. your book down Mr. my husband and myself - said the names words 'a great book by a great woman'. You have been So guess was true too at the Pee & Brook. London always inspiring us to live up to the best. in us -

"All in a day's work" Sherman & I are sharing. but we are going to ask you to autograph it for us - Will you?

Your telling of leaving home to go to Grandma's at three years I too took a similar trip but only not to Grandma's. I was sure my mother was not my mother (I had the best work in the world) so I started out on my weary search for the unknown. but - as I crossed the meadow with its long grass & thistles, pricking my bare legs (with only socks.) a stray bunch of grass got down my back under my thin frock. and alas I rushed back more than hurriedly to my mother's arms for her to soothe the sixth sheep. And I add, I thanked her more from mother's wise & loving care.

These mother-memories are my ~~precious~~ to us, are they not?

Accept dear Aunt Lillian the sincere appreciation of your devoted friend Helene Lundala.

Charles D. Haguen's Cousin Anna Haguen joined with us on Saturday en route to Pawnee. & the latter of Jan.
