Dear Miss Tarbell:

May I, a comparative stranger, extend my sincere good wishes and congratulations to you on this, your seventy-fifth birthday?

Truly, you, like poet Markham, have
"made a tree with time."

I have had the great honor of meeting
you through the kindness and courtesy of Mrs. Louise Brigham Chisholm;
but I already knew you intimately
through your great writings.

Yours sincerely,

Florence Hamilton.
