

August 11, 1931

Dear Mr. Blossom:

Here is the second of the Young articles. If you wish to talk it over with me I shall be in town next Monday morning. I shall also be ready then with an outline of the next article.

I could call at the office next Saturday morning if you are to be in that day and prefer to see me rather than on Monday.

Yours very sincerely

Mr. Sumner Blossom
250 Park Avenue
New York City