Dear Mr. Vezin:

Pardon my delay in giving you the information you ask in your letter of January 14th. I have been immersed in work and neglecting all my correspondence.

You want to know where you can obtain a copy of "The History of the Standard Oil Company." You say "True History" - that was not in the title, dear Mr. Vezin. I think you can get a copy through a second hand book dealer. I doubt if the premium would be as large now as it once was because Macmillan, my publisher, has a cheap edition on the market made from the original plate with one change only, not in my judgment of any great importance. Macmillan's address is 60 Fifth Avenue, New York City and the price of the book is I think $5.00.

If you should read it I wish you would tell me just how it strikes you now from the point of view of thirty years of oil running under the bridge.

Very truly yours

Mr. Charles Vezin
