Dear Mrs. Blair:

I was glad to have your letter of September 22nd. I appreciate your effort to get the story from Mrs. Janin in Washington, but I am not in the market for Lincoln stories just now. I am over-whelmed with other work and must put off Lincoln until I have a freer mind.

About your request to let you know if I hear of an opening on a magazine. I am so out of all forms of editorial work now-a-day that I do not often hear of things of this sort and then, too, the times are such that most editorial offices are cutting out rather than taking on people. But still the work goes on and if I hear of anything I will let you know.

If you are able to arrange it to come East this Fall do let me know.

Very sincerely yours

Mrs. Hazel E. Blair
