Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
c/o The Henry M. Seymour Library,
Knox College,
Galesburg, Illinois.

My dear Miss Tarbell:-

Mr. Stephens asks me to tell you that he is very sorry you cannot be in Springfield on December 21st but that he appreciates your interest in the Boy Scout movement. I, too, regret that you do not feel in position to make the trip.

I doubt very much if I will get my book ready before late spring. In all probability it will run to two sizeable volumes instead of the one I originally had in mind. I believe it will contain enough valuable material to make it a substantial contribution.

Very sincerely yours,

Paul M. Angle.
