

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

June 11, 1926.

To the American Diplomatic and Consular Officers.

Sirs:

At the instance of the Honorable
J. Butler Wright, Assistant Secretary of State, I take pleasure in introducing to you Miss Ida M. Tarbell, LL.D., of New York City, who is about to proceed abroad.

I cordially bespeak for Doctor Tarbell such courtesies and assistance as you may be able to render, consistently with your official duties.

I am, Sirs,

Your obedient servant,

James B. Keegan
