Base Ball.

RECORD OF TEAM'S WORK FOR SEASON OF '02—AS A WHOLE THE TEAM HAS MADE A VERY CREDITABLE SHOWING—COACH BUCKLEY DESERVES MUCH CREDIT.

Unfortunately the base ball season has been cut short, by order of "the powers that be," and the Campus takes pleasure in reviewing the work of the team. Base ball had a close call in our college last year and only survived through the efforts of several of the older members of last year's team. The game was really on trial this year and had the team proved a failure it is quite possible that it would have been the death blow to the game in Allegheny.

During the winter term the question of base ball was agitated by lovers of the national game, and as a result it was decided to procure a coach for this season and give the game a fair final trial. The management was most fortunate in procuring Mr. Buckley as coach. He had previously demonstrated to Allegheny College students that he was a decided success as a coach of college base ball by developing the first base ball team that ever represented Allegheny college. He is not only a master of the game in every detail, but has marvelous tact in managing and developing new material. The most marked characteristic of the team under Mr. Buckley's direction has been the aggressive work shown at all stages of the game, regardless of the score. Coach Buckley seems to have the power to instill ginger into the team under any condition. This year he has had many discouraging situations to face, yet at no time during the season has he appeared discouraged, even when it was discovered that the schedule was in almost hopeless confusion, he was not discouraged, but set about to help rearrange the southern trip and made it possible for the team to make the trip without losing money.

The management was in charge of Mr. Whitehill, and as he already had enough work for two men he was compelled to give up the work, resigning in favor of the assistant manager, Mr. Crawford. Much credit is due Mr. Crawford for the able manner in which he took charge of the work and the ultimate success of the team has been largely due to his untiring efforts. The team has played consistent ball in all the home games. The poor showing made at W. V. U. is excusable, since the team was up against a bunch of professionals. In every other game played the team has made a creditable showing. The base ball pennant of the league rightfully belongs to Allegheny, since our team defeated Westminster two games and Geneva was forced to cancel, thus allowing us the pennant.

This year's team had a nucleus seven of last year's team, four of these men were developed last year. The outfield was the same as last year. And while the work done in the outfield was not exactly up to what had been expected from so promising an outfield, yet the work in the home grounds was git-eldged.

Leffingwell led the outfielders in fielding, with an average of 727. Endean came second with an average of 682. Capt. Turner has an average for the season of 647. Endean did phenomenal work with the bat, having an average for the twelve games of 392, a record which will hardly be excelled among college players. Lewis also did good work with the bat, having an average of 377 for the season. His fielding average was also very good, with a percentage of 913. This is a record of which any first baseman may well be proud. Few national league basemen will excel our big first baseman's record in batting and fielding. Mook, behind the bat, played a phenomenal game, having a fielding average of 937. This alone does not indicate the good work done by him, as his throwing was one of the features of our team's work. Very few men succeeded in stealing second on Mook. The rest of our infield was composed of new and inexperienced men. Fletcher as second promises to develop into a fast infielder. He has a magnificent arm and is a very speedy base runner. With another year's experience he should develop into an invaluable infielder.

Lackey, at third, played a consistent game throughout the season, his throw across the diamond was most accurate and he played the most difficult position on the diamond in a very creditable manner. He should make a very valuable man for next year.

McConnell, who played short during the early part of the season, at times played phenomenal ball. His batting improved very much over last season and with another year's improvement he will take care of the short field in fine style.

In the pitching department, our team was not excelled by any team on our schedule this year. Haas has good curves and splendid control, and never loses his head at any stage of the game. He had 30 strike-outs for the season and his batting at all times was most opportune. During the latter part of the season he played short when not working in the box, and his work in that position was very good. He did especially fine work in the Grove City game.

Griffith, our one-armed phenom, pitched league ball this season. Seldom have Meadville enthusiasts seen better work done in the box than Griffith has done this season. His best work was done against Grove City, in which game he struck out 11 men and allowed but three hits. He was naturally handicapped in batting, but succeeded in working in several timely hits. He had 42 strike-outs during the season.

The official record of the men during the season is as follows:

	Games	At Bat	Runs	Hits	Per Cent.
Endean	12	56	10	22	.392
Lewis	12	53	12	20	.377

Glee Club Concert.

REMEMBER THE GLEE CLUB CONCERT TO BE HELD IN THE NEW CHAPEL WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18.

And now that it is possible for every student to remain for Commencement, there is no reason why at least three hundred students should not attend the annual Glee Club concert. It will be necessary for all the students wishing to attend the concert to procure their seats at an early hour. Managers

Scott will give the students the first chance to procure tickets, but the demand for tickets from the people of the city is becoming so insistent that tickets will soon have to be put on sale. Watch the bulletin board for the announcement. The tickets will be put on sale at the very reasonable figure of $1 per ticket. Now if you are out for bargains, this is one sure. To hear any of the great vocal artists apart from an occasion of this kind would cost you from two to six dollars. The Glee Club management makes it possible for you to hear one of the greatest vocal artists of the day at the very reasonable cost of $1. You can't afford to miss it. And then the Glee Club is giving better concerts than any glee club that ever represented the college. Three hundred students paying one dollar each will not pay the expenses of the concert. When the Glee Club management is willing to run so heavy a risk, the student body will surely stand by him right nobly.

Remember the date, the 18th of June, in the new chapel.

HOPKINS AND TORONTO.

Word was received by the Johns Hopkins lacrosse management yesterday morning from the University of Toronto stating that the crack Canadian twelve would play there on June 11.

The Toronto team holds the intercollegiate championship of Canada for the present season and has just returned from a tour through England, where every one of the crack teams were defeated. The game with Hopkins will practically decide the intercollegiate championship of the world.

The final examinations are going on at Hopkins just at present, but they close on Wednesday, and the men will begin systematic training immediately.

President Theodore Roosevelt may accept the invitation to attend which the Hopkins management will likely extend to him.

Philo-Franklin Oratorical Contest.

CLIFFORD J. SCOTT THE WINNER OF THE CENTENARY ORATORICAL CONTEST—SCOTT SECURES $30 AND WILL REPRESENT PHILO IN THE INTER-SOCIETY CONTEST.

The centenary oratorical contest was held in Philo Hall Monday night, and after one of the best and most interesting contests that has been held in that hall for a number of years, Clifford J. Scott was declared winner.

Scott's effort was masterly, and besides winning the $30 prize he will represent Philo-Franklin Literary Society in the inter-society contest to be held June 16.

A large crowd greeted the speakers and by its enthusiastic applause spurred them on to their best efforts. The high standard of literary work maintained by Philo could not be better advertised among the students of the college than by the program on Monday night. There were no failures, no poorly-learned orations. The thought and composition of every oration was a credit to the college.

The first speaker was Blaine Kincaid, his subject, "Home Rule for the Philippines." The Philippines come to us as a result of the Spanish-American war. History shows that distant possessions are detrimental to a nation. Spain's weakest point during the late war was her distant colonies. It will cost vast sums of money and a large standing army for the United States to keep the Filipinos in subjugation; they will not benefit us, and recent events, such as "the water cure," show that we cannot govern them justly. We have no right to sell them, therefore our best policy would be self-government for the Philippines such as we have given Cuba.

Dennis A. Betha was the second speaker. "Public Opinion as a Ruling Power."

The true sovereign of the world is public opinion. Public opinion is not a product of modern times. It has existed from the earliest ages. Sometimes it is constructive and often it is destructive. It beheaded Charles I; a few years later it restored his son to the throne. It built the American Commonwealth from thirteen feeble colonies. The press is to-day the greatest moulder of public opinion.

Robert F. Wilson's subject was "Municipal Ownership." The human race is destined to live mostly in cities. Our whole future depends upon adapting city life to our condition. Glasgow by making use of its municipal rights has changed from a filthy to a healthy and beautiful city. It seems impossible to establish municipal government but the present century must settle the question.

Mr. Scott, the winner of the contest, was the next speaker. His subject was "Mediaeval Advancement and its Cost."

Mr. Scott has a very pleasing delivery. Beginning in an easy conversational tone, he gradually became more eloquent as he spoke of the great achievements of mediaeval times, their benefit to us and the price which was

The Y. M. C. A. announces that a lecture is to be given in the near future to raise funds, in order to put the organization on a firm financial basis. The association seldom asks the student body to make donations, but yet are at all times at some expense. We feel that the student body is under obligations to the Y. M. C. A. and that the students can do no less than patronize the lecture. The lecturer of the evening needs no recommendation. Mr. Bugbee's ability as a public speaker is well known by the students. The subject of the lecture warrants a most interesting lecture. Mr. Bugbee, we understand, spent some time among the cowboys on the western plains, and his experiences related in his inimitable manner should be of much interest to all. The price of admission is very small and we as students can offer no excuse for not attending.

Y. M. C. A.

"A Summer Among the Cowboys" is the subject; Lucius H. Bugbee is the speaker, and YOU are an important part of the audience.

This interesting and entertaining lecture will be given under the auspices of our association and for the purpose of raising money to carry on the active work. While expenses are high the money is put to the best possible use.

We remind the student body that the Y. M. C. A. has made no call on them for money—quite a contrast to other college organizations—and our claim is just as binding.

The Association is the only organization in which party lines are not drawn and all men meet on a common footing; and further, it is the only purely Christian organization for men in Allegheny.

The Y. M. C. A. has given no lecture during the last five years and we now have good reason to expect great things.

A "rosary" for a subject:

A "Mr. Bugbee" for a month-piece!
And all of us for—an audience!

The lecture is founded upon actual experience; if you doubt it, come and listen. Perhaps you cannot easily reconcile the eloquence of the pastor of the Stone church and the ruggedness of ranch life, neither can we, but mustangs and Mexican ponies are small and our lecturer is active.

June 10. Reserve this evening for a popular lecture and for the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Bird led the Association meeting Monday, May 26. The service was helpful and the attendance good. We regret that Mr. Bird is a Senior, we need him here.

ANNUAL RECEPTION.

The Pennsylvania College of Music Gives a Most Delightful Greeting to Its Many Friends and Patrons.

The Pennsylvania College of Music tendered its annual reception last evening in the college building on Park avenue, and the guests of the evening numbered about 400. The reception was a most successful affair and reflected much credit upon the faculty of the college.

The rooms were daintily decorated with green and white bunting; and a profusion of palms added much to the general appearance of the main reception room. The guests were welcomed by a reception committee composed of the teachers of the conservatory.

By 9 o'clock the first guests began to arrive, and by 10 o'clock the spacious reception hall was well filled by the friends and patrons of the college. A punch bowl occupied a conspicuous place in the main reception hall and received its full share of attention.

Delightful refreshments were served on the second floor, in the roomy choir hall, and the large gathering was served with apparently the greatest ease. At 10:30 the main reception hall on the first floor was cleared and dancing was enjoyed by the younger members of the guests. The music of the evening was furnished by the Pennsylvania College Mandolin club, and the guests were surprised and delighted with the music furnished by the young men; indeed, to those who had not previously heard the Mandolin club the music was a revelation. The city is to be congratulated on containing so efficient an organization of that class as the Mandolin club of the college proved itself to be last night. The club consists of the following members: Reed Calvin, John Tordella, Guy Lippett, Ralph Kightlinger, Harold Acuff, Carl Fabr, Thomas Ewing, Fred Drake, Robert Lippett, Fred Boswell and John Nagengast.

By 11:30 the majority of the guests had departed, and all united in saying that the reception was a most enjoyable affair.

The college is about to close the 17th year of its career. The present year has been no exception to the many successful ones of the institution and, indeed under the conductorship of Mr. Warlich the popularity of the school has greatly increased. The management is to be congratulated on being able to secure the services of so able a man as Mr. Warlich has proved himself to be. The management announced last night that in all probability Mr. Warlich would be with the conservatory at least another year. Meadville people appreciate a real artist, and Mr. Warlich's popularity in this city is a sufficient guarantee of his musical ability.

The present year's work of the college will close with the rendition of "The Rose Maiden" on Thursday evening.

Allegheny College Students Have Always Made the Most Money Working for the KEYSTONE VIEW COMPANY. One of their number cleared over $800.00 in four months last year. We have graduates and former students of Allegheny College with us who are at present clearing above all expenses from $150.00 to $250.00 per month. We have also added largely to our already fine collection of Childhood and comic views, and our views of Alaska, Palestine, Egypt, Mexico, United States and other parts of the world, continue to hold first place with the public.

Our motto is quality first and quantity afterwards, although we are in position to offer both. We have a large force of photographers, who have won numerous medals, working for us exclusively in new fields of interest, and will always be in position to offer you the LATEST and BEST. Students who value their time should consider our work before making other engagements for their mid-summer vacation.

Miss Williams leaves school this week to accompany her parents to California.

Dr. Crawford departed yesterday for Wellsville, O., where he will address the graduating class of the city high school.

Marietta College is to have a fine new gymnasium. The college will take a more active part in Athletics the coming year than ever before.

Harry White, S. A. E., ex-'03, arrived in town on train 10. He is here to attend the wedding of Dr. A. O. Davis and Miss Marguerite Harper.

It is said that Mrs. Laffer failed to get in before hours on Monday evening. The town clock had struck the hour before she reached the campus.

The Kaldron will be completed in less than ten days. The last form has been printed, and the binder is hard at work. Just wait until you see it.

Prof. Elliott departed on train seven yesterday for Pittsburg. We wouldn't be surprised if he returned with the announcement of a Y. M. C. A. building or a medical department.

Rev. Shippen, of Massachusetts, gave a delightful talk in chapel yesterday morning. It does the student body good to have such a sermon as the Rev. Shippen return to the old college and make their presence known by a few words of greeting.

The Choral Society of the Pennsylvania College of Music will give the "Rose Maiden" in the Academy of Music on Thursday night of this week. Many of the college students are assisting in the chorus. From all reports the evening's entertainment is of a very high order, and it is to be hoped that many college students will attend on Thursday night.

The only game of the Allegheny college tennis tournament played on Tuesday was the match of doubles between Church and Harper and the Merrill brothers. It was a hard played match and required the rubber set to be played. The Merrills won the first set, 6 to 2, lost the second one, 6 to 3, and won the third one, 7 to 5, thus taking the match. The postponed games will be played to-day.

Soon the graduation essay will be upon us, fat and fatuous, filled with the frizzle ends of wisdom, says the Johnstown Democrat. With a peaceful complacency one by one the sweet young things of the feminine calling and the masculine world moulders will step up to the scholastic home plate and score a home run at the expense of the Problem of Human Existence or the Outlines of Cosmic Philosophy. The enthusiastic "commencee" will, with the aid of a stack of learning that bears a label composed of a wonderful derangement of the alphabet, dig deep into the mysteries of the past or gaze with prophetic sight into the future. Everything will be discussed and settled except those matters that vitally affect our present existence. Present problems are, however, left for future graduates. The answer to the question, "How to Bust the Meat Trust?" will probably be handed down some time about 2001 by some shy young thing in white and blue.

THE TENNIS PLAYERS ARE GETTING DOWN TO REAL WORK. MONDAY'S RESULTS AND TUESDAY'S PROGRAM.

Allegheny College Campus, June 2. —The tennis tournament is becoming more interesting as it progresses and already a number of the weaker players have given place to the prospective champions. - Allen defeated Jones 6 to 1, 6 to 3.
  - R. N. Merrill defeated Beyer 6 to 0, 6 to 2.
  - Royce defeated C. C. Merrill 6 to 2, 10 to 12, 8 to 6.

  - Williams defeated Reese 4 to 6, 6 to 2, 6 to 0.
  - Davenport won by forfeit from Ashley.
  - Doubles—Crawford and Ashley defeated Reese and Morrison 6 to 2, 6 to 3.
- Schedule for Tuesday.
- Blaisdell and Royce vs Smith and Williams.
  - Merrill and Merrill vs Church and Harper.
  - Ballantyne and Allen vs Craig and Leffingwell.
  - Crawford and Ashley vs Jones and Wilson.

AN "AT HOME."

Delightful Affair Last Evening at the Phi Delta Theta Chapter House. Phi Delta Theta fraternity entertained a large number of their lady friends at their home on Highland avenue on Monday evening. The entire house was thrown open for the entertainment of the visitors and the spacious rooms and halls were the scene of much enjoyment. Japanese lanterns were hung on all the porches and on the roof and lawn. A number of hammocks and rustic benches under the trees were in continuous use by the visitors. Of course there was a ping pong game for the faddists, and it vied with the ever present punch bowl for popularity. The house was tastefully decorated in blue and white bunting, the fraternity colors, and old gold and blue, the college colors. The affair was a success in every way and Phi Delta Theta's reputation for entertaining was sustained.

Graduate, at parting, with emotion—"Professor, I am indebted to you for all I know."
Professor—"Don't mention such a trifle."

COLLEGE EXCHANGES.

The Seminary Collegiate of May contains a fine half-tome of Miss Iva D. McCray, who is teacher of elocution in Buchanan Seminary, W. Va. Miss McCray graduated from Allegheny with the class of '00.

The late Professor Jacobi, one of the most famous physicians of Berlin, Germany, has bequeathed ten thousand marks to the University of Berlin, making it a condition that the University shall not come into possession of the money until women are admitted as regular students in at least two departments. A generous North Carolinian secured the admission of women to the State University by a large gift which he made on condition that the doors should be opened to them.

and Miss [unclear] of Baltimore bought the women the right to study at the medical school of Johns Hopkins; but Dr. Jacobi is, we believe, the first German to take this eminently practical method of promoting equal rights. All honor to him!

A NEW SYSTEM OF ELECTING CAMPUS BOARD TO BE INAUGURATED NEXT TERM.

A meeting was held in the chapel last week, consisting of representatives from the various fraternities and boarding clubs. The object of the meeting was to adopt some plan whereby the Campus editors should secure their place through competition. No satisfactory arrangement could be decided upon, and a committee consisting of Prof. Elliott, Mr. Pollock and Mr. Taylor was appointed to mature some plan by which the Campus board for next year could be appointed. The committee reported on Saturday afternoon that they had matured a plan which would insure an experienced board for the fall term of next year and give time to mature a complete competitive system. The plan was as follows: That Messrs. Taylor and Lampe have charge of the work for the fall term, that they be allowed to appoint a third member of the board as alumni editor, and that a competitive system be at once perfected, which would allow all persons wishing to secure positions on the Campus board to turn in material from the beginning of the fall term, and at the end of the fall term all work turned in should be examined by a competent committee, and the places on the college weekly be filled by those having turned in the most creditable work. The report of the committee was accepted and a committee appointed to perfect a plan in accordance with the above suggestions. This committee is composed of Prof. Elliott, Messrs. Lampe, Crawford, Pollock and Taylor. The committee is to meet in Prof. Elliott's room Thursday at 2:50 p. m. and report at the general committee meeting the same afternoon at 4 o'clock in the college chapel.

The University of Minnesota has a fund of $50,000 which is used for the assistance of needy students.

The United States educational report for 1899 shows that there were for that year a total of 21,801 American women in the colleges of this country. Of these there were 16,966 in the 337 co-educational colleges, 3,799 in the 11 independent women's colleges. The number of women graduated annually from American colleges is about 2,600. Women form 21.4 per cent. of all the students in American colleges. In Great Britain they form only 12.5 per cent.

Europe was devastated, Rome destroyed; but from their ruins a higher civilization has been created by the teuton. The struggle of the communes was the price of English liberty. The Reformation, with its bloody tortures, was the price of our freedom of conscience. But the future will be all that the past was not, if the past was dark the future will be bright.

Mr. Burton showed that commerce is indispensable to a great nation, that if the United States is to extend her commerce she must increase her navy. Our boats should be seen in every harbor of the world.
