

Mary Lincoln and Her Clothes:

Here is a chance for a note on the P & B talk the doll
which/is to give if I ever get to it.

"Mrs. Lincoln was like a big doll - as emotionless as the lesser types in procelain and china - so it seemed to me as I looked at the one and the other."

newspaper
The/files, probably the last week of March, 1864
would contain description of her dress.
