Dear Ida:

Have you returned from your travels and what is the status of the manuscript? When can you send me the following data:-

An approximate guess at the number of thousand words in the complete work; a list of chapters; a few photographs, and an interesting chapter to use for salesmen's dummy.

When will McClure begin to reissue the magazine? Has this matter been settled? Also when shall you be able to complete your manuscript?

Our salesmen comb the country six months in advance of book publication, so I am up against it now for advance information and material for dummies.

When can we get together for a talk?

Yours always,

Miss Ida Tarbell
