New York, N. Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I will be in my office on Friday of this week at three o'clock or, if that is not convenient to you, at any other hour which you may care to arrange over the telephone.

I am afraid that you will be disappointed with the information I can give you, but possibly when I understand just what you are looking for, I can either suggest better sources of information or secure some additional data for you.

Very truly yours,

Frazer Sinclair
