Dear madam:

Replying to your favor of June 16th—

The Lincoln portrait sent you several days ago was copied from a very rare original print found in the effects of Henry R. Brown, famous sculptor of the fifties and sixties, and personal friend of Lincoln. It was found by Mr. Henry R. Bush Brown, famous sculptor of this City and nephew and adopted son of Mr. Henry R. Brown. Mr. Bush Brown is a valued friend and customer and permitted us to copy this print. He subsequently presented it to the Library of Congress where it is now on exhibition.

Bill is enclosed.*

Trusting we may have the pleasure of serving you further, we are

Yours very truly,
