My dear Mrs Kerr! -

I have been my very long in thankin' you for your kindness in sending me the beautiful bag which I have so once used. I am so happy to have something of keep, you know what old and dear friends we were. I can sincerely think of her as gone. How you must miss her! I was making ready to stop over in Tilghfield of day to see her when I learned she was dead.

Please believe I shall revere this bag. I should love to have it of you before
