Dear Miss Tarbell:

Will you be good enough to tell me where I can procure a print of ^{the} 1854 photograph of Lincoln reproduced with your article in the February Cosmopolitan? The legend states that the original is owned by William L. Brungate, but does not give his address. Your help in this matter will be appreciated.

Faithfully yours,

Walter R. Wilson

If you will write to W. L. B. (give address) I think he will send you a copy - if you tell him I requested it. I had you are interested in pictures. It has a history. While I am trying to unravel
