Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York, N.Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

The special predictions concerning the termination of the war and general world conditions, referred to in a recent talk with Judge Gary, are contained respectively in two booklets enclosed, the one being a speech before the Commercial Club, Duluth, Minn., June 13, 1918, and the other an address before the American Iron & Steel Institute May 28, 1915.

Four additional references to the termination of the war are contained in other booklets, which are also enclosed.

Very truly yours,

Secretary to Judge Gary.

Enclosures.
