

February 15, 1923

Mr. H. S. Latham,
The Macmillan Company,
64 Fifth Avenue,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Latham:

Pardon the delay in replying to your letter of February 8. I have been out of town.

You say that Collier's Weekly, in conjunction with the Boy Scouts, is putting out a subscription offer on a six volume set of books of biography for boys, and that they will include my Boys' Life if I will accept five cents per copy on all copies sold.

This seems to me entirely reasonable, and you can close the arrangement as far as I am concerned.

Thank you, too, for your second letter in regard to the two volume Life. I am quite willing to take the 10% royalty on the one volume re-issue, provided you keep the present two volume issue in stock and pay the regular royalty on that.

Very sincerely yours,
