ROOM 2555

August 11, 1953.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

It occurred to me that you would be interested in seeing the attached copy of a letter which Mr. Young received the other day. The lady's request for an autograph was promptly responded to.

With kind regards, as always,

Faithfully yours,

Ernest Case

COPIES

My dear Mr. Young,

No more than ten minutes ago I concluded one of the most interesting books I have ever read. From cover to cover, although there was much I could not understand, I found many surprising facts which have brought me to a realization and deeper appreciation of your benefit to the industrial and other worlds. However, it is not alone Miss Tarbell's biography that makes me know your worth and stimulates my desire to have your autograph with hers already obtained, but also the mere fact that you are known and loved by all which makes my collection quite incomplete without your signature.

Realizing that your time is more than limited, I have enclosed a card within the self-addressed and stamped envelope for your convenience, should you find a moment to grant my humble request I would be sincerely grateful for acknowledgment.

Thanking you in advance for your kindness,

I am, yours truly,

HELEN E. KENNEDY
