

THE WATKINSON LIBRARY,

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 11, 1922

FRANK B. GAY, Librarian.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York.

Dear Madam:

In reply to yours of Sept. 9th. The Gilbert Tracy Lincoln Collection is in this Library in the Wadsworth Atheneum. Although it has not been fully classified or catalogued, it is for the use of the public and we shall esteem it an honor to have you use it. I think we can find any thing in it that you may wish to see, and in any case, we shall gladly turn you on the shelves. We are open from 9.30 to 5.30, except on holidays and Sundays.

Could you send us word a day or two before you are likely to visit us, as I should like very much to be in attendance at the time.

Very truly yours,

Frank B. Gay

Librarian.

P.S. If you have little slips of things wanted, send them, & we will ok. & return them, before you come up.

*Every undelivered
Lainon*