Dear Miss Tarbell:

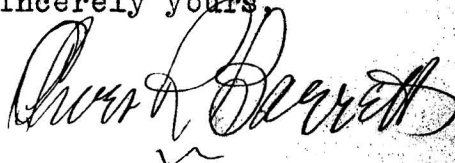

I have just received the Elements of Character from Springfield. I have looked through several of the stores here but haven't located a copy yet, although we surely will run across one before a great while.

I have not been in the vault to get out the Mary Lincoln letters, but I am going to do that and I think I have everything in mind that you want.

Roger was very greatly pleased with his "Boyscout Life of Lincoln" and he tells me he intends writing you about it.

Judge Horner said he was pleased with your attitude in connection with the Rosenwald biography, and if you have not heard from him, you, no doubt, will hear from him very soon.

Sincerely yours

ORB:LK
