International General Electric Co.

New York City

Dear Mr. Crocker:

I have just come into town after a holiday in the country and find your letter of July 2nd.

Thank you for your suggestion that I see Mr. E. W. Rice. I have already met Mr. Rice though I have not had an opportunity to talk with him. I appreciate how excellent a suggestion you make probably my wisest course would be to go to Schenectady and take up the whole question of Mr. Young's interest in the General Electric's labor policy from the time he entered the concern.

It has occurred to me that you might have been with him in Washington at the time that he headed the Committee on Business Cycles of the Harding Unemployment Conference. That Committee did a fine piece of work and I want to get the whole story of Mr. Young's part in it which I have ^{been} ~~been~~ led to believe was as usual the bigger part.

In ten days or so I am going to take you at your word and ask you to read the first draft of an article I am preparing for the American Magazine - the article in which I want to use as fully as you will allow me the story of your own up-bringing under Mr. Young - a mighty fine story I consider it.

I want you to know how much appreciate the cordial and intelligent co-operation you are giving me in this project.

Very sincerely yours
