

120 East 19th Street,
New York City
July 7, 1930.

Dear Mr. Graeve:

Here is the revised ending for the Prohibition piece. I hope it will be satisfactory.

I shall count on seeing you at 4.30 tomorrow, Tuesday, at the Cosmopolitan Club.
I have two or three subjects in mind. Probably you and Mr. Moore have others, so I think we can work out something.

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Oscar Graeve, Editor,
Delineator,
Butterick Building,
New York, N. Y.