

February 10, 1936

Dear Mr. Finley:

I found full notes of the talk I gave at the Knox dinner. I do not seem to have the report made in the Knox Bulletin. As I recall it it was a digest of the enclosed.

I am sending it to your house to save you the trouble of calling here and running the considerable risk of not finding me in.

Faithfully yours

Dr. John H. Finley
1 Lexington Ave.
New York City