

HEADQUARTERS
GENERAL OF THE ARMIES
WASHINGTON

April 26, 1923.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 E. 19th Street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I have your kind letter of April 23rd and will follow up the Lieber clue. I feel satisfied that it will give me what I want, and I think I must have found the reference to Clausewitz in Lieber many years ago. Please do not take the trouble to examine your notes, as I think I can find it now. If I do, I shall send you the result, and if not, I may ask you to help me again.

With best wishes from all of us,

Very sincerely yours,

John M. Palmer
