

which you forwarded to me on May 15 from the Press Exchange. I meant to bring it down with me Monday but neglected to do so.

These people can get everything they need from Cetter and other printed sources for their sketch would have to be short. What the gentleman really wants, however, is a personal interview with Judge Gary, and that of course is for the Judge to decide.

I hope your cold is better, dear Mr. Sites.

Sincerely yours,