RICHARD C. ELLSWORTH
SECRETARY

May 11, 1931.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York, New York.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

President Sykes has informed me that you are to arrive in Canton on May 17 and has done me the honor to ask me to meet you at the train. This I am very happy to do, and am writing to ask if you will tell me the time when you will arrive.

I note also with pleasure that you are to do a series of articles about Mr. Young. I was in college with Mr. Young and will read what you have to say about him with interest. Further, I may add that myself and my automobile will be entirely at your service while you are at St. Lawrence.

Sincerely,

Richard C. Ellsworth
