WOODROW WILSON
WASHINGTON D C

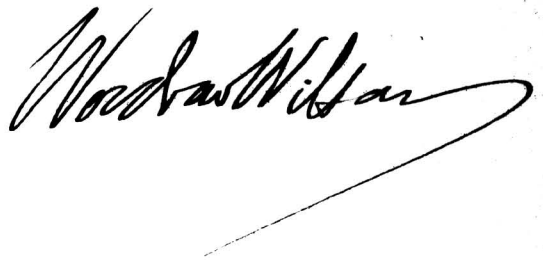

7th March 1923

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I have just had the pleasure of reading your generous letter from Peoria. In it you promise just what I would have wished—that you will let me know in advance of the time of your next visit to Washington—and I shall look forward with pleasure to arranging to see you then.

With warmest regard, in which Mrs. Wilson joins;

Cordially and sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Woodrow Wilson". The signature is written in dark ink and has a long, sweeping tail that extends towards the bottom right of the page.
