Dear Miss Tarbell:

Mrs Yates has told me of your interest in the Rolling Their Own Relief editorial in the Survey.

The Readers Digest used it and we have been getting letters from all over-- as far away as Missouri.

It does seem as if what has been done here could be done anywhere and that the facts are tremendously important just now. Yesterday I checked the records since the workers took the Registry over and the amount earned is as much as under our supervision.

I am taking the liberty of sending you a carbon of a more detailed account for your information. It has always been our hope that the Registry here might be the first of many.
