Dear John
I wish I could not see Lincoln.

I had a remarkable talk with Medill. He pronounces Whitney's speech as genuine in fact, phrase & style & worth our whole effort. It alone crowns the work. I'll write out what he said & mail you from St Paul tomorrow His letter about it to Mrs Tarkenton will be a corker & will do the business to make this a really speech a classic. He says we will not be able to print enough magazines. He says

it will cause a tremendous sensation

I am St Paul of me

Sincerely
