My dear Mr. Coleman:

Please believe that I appreciate very much the trouble you have taken in the matter of the Revised Laws of Indiana which we are seeking for the Allegheny College Alumni Lincoln Collection. We would liked to have it for $25.00, but I really did not expect it. $40.00 is all right with our committee here and we are asking Mr. Barnett to send on the book to inspect. I think there is no doubt but what we shall keep it.

We may be writing you again if you do not mind about books we are looking for. You don't happen to know of a Ween's "Life of Washington" of Lincoln's time, do you? If anything occurs to you that is valuable to the collection I shall greatly appreciate it if you will let me know.

With renewed thanks
for your kindness, believe me

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Christopher E. Coleman
