

Hetty Cary

See Mr. Myrtle's of '81.

~~Fragment~~

Not-inactive - Mr Adams describes the attack by Roman on Thomas Boylston of Boston who at a time ~~the~~ 77 when sugar & coffee were scarce locked up what he had of coffee & charged a shilling a pound for it - A mob of a hundred or more women marched to the store with cart & bucket & demanded the keys. When the merchant refused they "seized him by the neck & thrust him into the cart" He finally gave up the keys to escape & they carried off the coffee.