

December 7, 1928.

Mr. Herbert F. Jenkins, Vice Pres.,
Little, Brown & Company,
Boston, Massachusetts.

My dear Mr. Jenkins:

I am sorry that I have been so slow in reading the second installment of Ludwig's "Lincoln" and now I won't have time to give it the close scrutiny it should have, and which I would like to give but could not possibly find time for before the first of the year.

I am enclosing a list of points which I think Mr. Ludwig should consider.

Very sincerely yours,
